

Addendum to "Agreement on Copying of Copyrighted Material"

Preamble:

- a) This Addendum is an addendum to the agreements concluded by educational institutions with Copydan Writing on the possibility of copying copyrighted material for use for the institution's educational activities and internal administrative use.
- b) The purpose of the Addendum is to increase the number of types of materials covered by the institution's "Agreement on Copying of Copyrighted Material" insofar as copying for the institution's educational activities is concerned. The "Agreement on Copying of Copyrighted Material" will hereinafter be referred to as the "Agreement".
- c) Copydan Writing is the approved collective management organisation for all categories of rightsholders, which under the extended collective licensing system is entitled to license the copying of published literary works and sheet music for use for educational activities, see Section 13 of the Danish Copyright Act.
- d) VISDA (Visual Rights in Denmark) is the approved collective management organisation for all organisations of image authors (artists, cartoonists, illustrators, photographers etc.), which under the extended collective licensing system is entitled to license the reproduction of published works of art under section 24 a of the Danish Copyright Act, see section 50.

Against this background, the following Addendum has been agreed upon:

1. Insofar as Clause 6 "Newspapers" of the Agreement is concerned, this Addendum stipulates that digital newspapers may be copied for educational activities within the framework described in the Agreement.
2. All other terms of the Agreement, such as credits, remuneration, conflict resolution etc., remain in full force and effect.
3. The Addendum enters into force on the date of its signature.
